2 The Cedillo Weekly 11/21/14

Sat Nov 22, 2014 11:49 pm (PST) . Posted by: asncaalert

Friends,

I have spent the majority of my legislative career fighting for those without a voice, successfully passing the California Dream Act and most recently helping to push the Driver's License Bill over the finish line with the passage of AB60. The action announced by President Obama this week continues to make the work of all the DREAMERS a reality.

I applaud the President for taking action to protect millions of families by providing temporary relief from deportation so that American Citizens do not live in fear of their families being torn apart. Let this be an example for Congress to act on bipartisan legislation that will continue to help families of all Americans, our undocumented and unilaterally help to boost our economy through citizens who are eager and willing to contribute legally to our society

Sincerely,

Gilbert A. Cedillo
Councilmember, First District

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

We have been in Asian this past week on a trade delegation with the Mayor, and Council meetings have been closed for the week. Next week we anticipate a busy legislative session was the City Council begins to wrap up for the year.

A major item that we will have is our Wage Theft ordinance which will be heard in committee.

FIELD UPDATE

Team Cedillo has been busy all week planning and preparing to make sure families in need will have a Thanksgiving meal by distributing over 1,000 turkeys throughout the district.

Today, we are distributing at our district office in Highland Park to local community based organizations and social services agencies.

On Monday and Tuesday, we will continue our distribution to residents who are in need.

ELYSIAN VALLEY — Police have closed Riverside Drive to traffic this morning to allow the LAPD's bomb squad to inspect a suspicious item that was reported on top of an electric utility box, said an officer at the Northeast Division Station. Police began sealing off the area near Riverside Drive and Harwood Street at about 9 a.m.

It's the third bomb scare in the area in recent weeks. The bomb squad has been called in to deal with an inert grenade on the 2 Freeway and a guitar case left on top of a bus shelter at Riverside and Fletcher drives.

*Update: The streets have been reopened as of 11:30 a.m., according to the Northeast Division.
